

Paul Fleissner, LSW, BA, BS
Director of Olmsted County Community Services
Biography

Paul is a licensed social worker who also has an accounting degree. In Paul's current position as Director of Community Services he is responsible for probation services for three counties along with social services, public assistance and veteran services in Olmsted County.

During his 27 years in human services Paul has worked as a behavior analyst and program manager in group homes for the disabled and mentally ill. He has been a program director at a large non-profit, and for the past 18 years has worked in Olmsted County as a social worker and in administration. Paul has served on various boards over the years.

Paul is past president of the Minnesota Association of County Social Service Administrators (MACSSA). He currently serves on the board of the National Association of County Human Service Administrators (NACHSA).

Paul is married to Lisa and they have three children. Most of Paul's time away from work is spent on coaching basketball, fishing, attending various activities for his kids, and figuring out how to replace more of his yard with new gardens.
