

Cancellations & Refunds

Due to the high demand for camp spaces, each sale will be considered final. Registrations are not transferable from child to child. Patrons who cancel out of the camp will receive a 50% refund of the cost of the dropped camp if notification is received at least 10 business days before camp starts. In order to receive a 50% refund, patrons must contact Sampradaya Camp via email no later than 10 business days prior to the first day of camp (email: sampradayacamp@gmail.com).

Inclement Weather Policy

Global Organization for Divinity reserves the right to cancel camps in the event of adverse conditions and inclement weather. In the unfortunate situation that this should happen, we will make an announcement about camp closure as quickly as possible and communicate via email/phone. If camp is closed due to inclement weather prior to the start date, there will be a full refund available to patrons. If adverse weather conditions arise during the camp, a full refund will be available to patrons for the remaining days.
