

John D. Fischer, CPA

A native of Long Island, NY, Mr. Fischer holds a bachelor of science degree in Accounting from Franciscan University (1983) and is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) in the state of Ohio. While an undergrad at FUS, Mr. Fischer was a member of both the Alpha Phi Delta Fraternity and the Theophilus household, and was a photographer for the Baronette, the year book, and the PR department.

Since 2009, Mr. Fischer has sat on the Franciscan University Alumni board, and has been active in promoting Franciscan University alumni reunions. He has also assisted with the FUS sponsored marriage preparation program on finances. He has served on the school board of Holy Rosary school, the Diocese of Steubenville cathedral planning commission, and the cathedral finance committee.

Mr. Fischer is currently the Vice President of Sales & Marketing for MAM Software, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of MAM Software Group (MAMS). MAM Software is a leading provider in North America and the UK for business management software solutions to the automotive aftermarket. Mr. Fischer has been with MAM since 2002 when the company he co-founded was acquired by MAM. In 2000, Mr. Fischer co-founded OpenWebs Corporation where he was Vice President of Sales, and previous to this, he co-founded Signal Software Corporation (in 1992).

Mr. Fischer is married to Susan (Creel '84) Fischer and is a resident of Steubenville, Ohio. John and Susan are the parents of five children, and one grandchild:

- John (FUS '09) & Kate Butters (FUS '11) Fischer, and daughter, Abigail
- Christen Fischer, FUS '11
- Daniel Fischer, Johns Hopkins University '13
- Michael Fischer, FUS '16
- Anne Fischer, sophomore Catholic Central HS, Steubenville

John and Susan are members of St. Peter Catholic Church in Steubenville. John is the coach of the St. Peter Church men's softball team, and is a member of the Knights of Columbus.
