

Paul Giannamore

Experience

1985–Present Herald-Star Steubenville, OH

- copy editor/online columnist/editorial writer, 2004-present
- Responsible for production of weekly Sunday business section and its content, including features and general business news stories
- Production of special sections
- Coverage of the steel industry, including two sales of Wheeling-Pittsburgh Steel Corp. and purchase of Weirton Steel by ArcelorMittal; numerous small business stories
- Coverage of local economic development and organizations including Progress Alliance, Jefferson County Chamber of Commerce and Brooke-Hancock-Jefferson Metropolitan Planning Commission
- Write the majority of the newspaper's editorials in collaboration with staff input.

City editor 2002-2004

- Responsible for staff of 10 reporters covering the Ohio Valley
- Write the majority of the newspaper's editorials in collaboration with staff input

News editor 1998-2004

- Responsible for daily production and wire content including stories and photos of the newspaper
- Responsible for scheduling staff of five copy editors and coordination with management and other departments for production, quality and meeting daily and weekly deadlines.
- Write the majority of the newspaper's editorials in collaboration with staff input.

Editorial Page Editor 1994-1998

- Responsible for editorial page content and writing of opinion pieces.
- Coordinated letters to the editor and other public opinion formats.
- Daily copy editing and production of news pages.

City Hall Reporter 1986-1994

- Daily coverage of city government and police activities as well as coverage of the business community, Brooke-Hancock-Jefferson Metropolitan Planning Commission.
- Began writing weekly columns which I continued to write while holding advancing positions of responsibility
- Photography and darkroom work

1982-85 WEIR Radio Weirton, WV

Afternoon news editor

- Responsible for interviewing, editing and on-air delivery of hourly newscasts as well as night and weekend disk jockey shifts.
- Radio commercial production
- Maintenance of public review file.

1981-84 WLIT Radio Steubenville, OH

News reporter

- Responsible for interviewing, editing and on-air delivery of hourly newscasts as well as disk jockey shifts.

1982-84 WANR/WANJ Radio Wheeling, WV

- News reporter, disk jockey
- Reporter and on-air personality for AM rock and FM adult contemporary radio stations

Education

- 1980-1984 Franciscan University of Steubenville
- B.A., English with concentration in Mass Communications, minor in political science
- Graduated summa cum laude.
- Interned in news department at WSTV Radio, Steubenville

Interests

- Music, computers, family activities, sports; member St. Francis of Assisi Church in Toronto, Ohio, its choir and lector program