

Paul Nigro

Paul M. Nigro was born September 14, 1947 in Pittsburgh, PA and is married to Patricia Coughlin ('71). In 1969 he graduated from then College of Steubenville with a BA degree in Philosophy. During his years at the College he was a member of the Student Government for two years, member of Lambda Chi Alpha (Fraternity President 1968-1969), member of the Philosophy Club (Club President 1968-1969) and also served as a dormitory resident assistant in 1968 and 1969.

His professional accomplishments include serving as Assistant Director of Admissions for the College of Steubenville from 1970-1972 and Sales Representative for Noxell Corporation from 1972-1975. From 1976-1999 he held the positions of Sales Representative, National Accounts Manager and Division Sales Manager for Union Carbide Corp/First Brands Corp. These positions required relocation from Pittsburgh to Newtown, CT, Boston, MA and Wayne, NJ. He was promoted within the organization to various management positions, ultimately becoming Managing Director of Trade Marketing in 1995. In July 1999 he retired from First Brands Corporation. Since retiring, he has accepted various consulting positions.

Paul has been very involved with youth development and served as a basketball coach for the Parks and Recreation Department from 1986 to 1996. His outside interests include foreign affairs, reading, and charitable works (e.g., Save the Children Foundation).