John Agard

I am delighted to present our outreach workshop programme to you for this, the 2nd Ardingly ArtsFest.

We very much hope that you will join us for what we are sure will be another incredible week of creativity and entertainment, here at Ardingly.

On the programme this year, once again we have some of the world's finest performers, musicians, comedians, writers and artists.

We think there's something for everyone on our public events programme – from the Orchestra of the Royal Opera House with Sir John Tomlinson to Absolute Bowie, Europe's no.1 Bowie tribute band; from The Reduced Shakespeare Company to an evening with Bradley Walsh.

And we are proud to be offering workshop places to all of our Outreach Partner Schools throughout the week with some of our top acts including Stomp and The Comedy Club 4 Kids. All completely FREE OF CHARGE. Participant schools just need to arrange transport, packed lunches and adult supervision for their pupils*.

Registration for schools is through our Eventbrite website which can be found by clicking this link:
