

Neuroendocrine Cancer Patient Education Seminar

Co-sponsored by Cedars-Sinai Medical Center and the Caring for Carcinoid Foundation

Thalians Auditorium, Cedars-Sinai Medical Center

March 17, 2012

Carlos Anaya, MD	Interventional Oncology & Radiology, Cedars-Sinai
Arash Asher, MD	Director, Cancer Survivorship & Rehabilitation, Cedars-Sinai
Marc Friedman, MD	Chief, Vascular & Interventional Radiology, Cedars-Sinai
Jodi Newson, MS	Director of Nutrition Services, Tower Hematology Oncology Medical Group
Nicholas Nissen, MD	Surgeon, Comprehensive Transplant Center, Cedars-Sinai
Joseph Pisegna, MD	Professor of Medicine, UCLA
Edward Wolin, MD	Co-Director, Carcinoid & Neuroendocrine Tumor Program, Cedars-Sinai

11:30-12:30	Registration & Lunch
12:30-12:40	Welcome	Eisner/Wolin
12:40-1:20	Neuroendocrine Tumor Primer and New Diagnostics for 2012	Pisegna
1:20 – 2:00	New Therapies for Neuroendocrine Tumor Patients: Approved and in Development	Wolin
2:00-3:00	Managing Liver Metastases <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Liver Surgery Including Transplant Options • Hepatic Artery Embolization • Ablative Techniques for Neuroendocrine Tumor Metastasis • Panel Discussion and Audience Q&A 	Nissen Friedman Anaya Wolin, moderator
3:00-3:30	Break
3:30-3:45	CFCF Awards for Volunteerism, Fundraising, and Advocacy	Eisner
3:45-4:45	Managing Stress: The Mind-Body Connection <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Non-medical ways of managing your life • Maintaining a positive outlook • Managing uncertainty • Panel Discussion and Audience Q&A 	Asher/Newson Imbesi, moderator
4:45	New Neuroendocrine Cancer Research	Eisner

