

The Neighborhood Christian Legal Clinic in partnership with
The Indianapolis Bar Association & Ice Miller LLP present

Immigration Law:
Understanding the Legal Needs of Vulnerable Populations
Friday November 30th, 2012
8:20am-4pm

- 8-8:20am Registration
- 8:20-8:30am Welcome from Josh Abel, Executive Director of the Neighborhood Christian Legal Clinic
- 8:30-9:30am Overview of Immigration Law
Lisa Yankey, Staff attorney at the Neighborhood Christian Legal Clinic
- 9:30-10:30am Asylum: An Account of a “Particular Social Group”; New developments surrounding FGM and gang-related violence
Linda Kelly-Hill, Professor of Law at Indiana University School of Law Indianapolis and in-house volunteer attorney at the Neighborhood Christian Legal Clinic
- 10:30-10:45am Break
- 10:45-11:45am Fundamentals of Evaluating Unlawful Presence & Assessing Waiver Eligibility
John Broyles, Attorney at Law and founding partner Broyles Kight Ricafort P.C.
- 11:45-12:45pm Lunch Break with NLS Presentation from the Julian Center: Human Trafficking and the Indianapolis Immigrant Community
Laura Harms, Care Coordinator Human Trafficking Program at the Julian Center
Sarah Abdullah, Victim Specialist with the FBI

- 12:45-1:45pm Special Immigrant Juvenile Status
Rachel Van Tyle, Staff Attorney at the Neighborhood Christian Legal Clinic
- 1:45-2:00pm Break
- 2:00-3:00pm Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals,
Blair Wheat, Staff Attorney at the Neighborhood Christian Legal Clinic
- 3:00-4:00pm Violence Against Women Act Petitions and Fee Waivers
Desiree Koger-Gustafson, Director of Fort Wayne office at the Neighborhood Christian Legal Clinic

6 Hours of CLE Credit (pending)*

· We Stand for Justice ·

