

Stacey

put a bit of Currie in it

According to the usual script, Stacey should be living on the streets, in jail, on drugs or dead. She ticks all the boxes when it comes to risk factors, having experienced no mum throughout her life, bought up in housing commission, child sexual abuse, aged 13 and living in a shed, 15 and pregnant, 19 with 2 babies and homeless, 21 with 3 kids and living in a domestic violent relationship.

But remarkably Stacey managed to defy the odds in a spectacular way, through following her passion.

Fast forward 10 years...

Often referred to as the “dynamite” by colleagues, clients and friends and recently featured on The Circle, The Kerri-Anne Show, A Current Affairs, ABC’s 7:30 Report, The Herald Sun, The Age, BRW magazine, and many more; this lady is living proof that you CAN overcome the odds and turn your “Happy ever after into her happy right NOW”...

Stacey has a serious motivation to get Results and it’s no surprise that (without any Sales experience) she singlehandedly opened her business and grew a small business from $100 of sales per month to a whopping $100,000 per month...an achievement that won her a nomination in this year’s (2011) Telstra Women in Business Awards. Completing her first book in a short 6 months, you can be sure that if it’s on her to-do list, it will get DONE!

Stacey is now 32 years old and has five wonderful children aged 16, 13, 11, 3 and 2, and a beautiful and supportive partner. She lives in her dream home by the beach, is an author, speaker, and runs a successful business Signs’n’Banners Pty Ltd. The most exciting part of Stacey’s life right now is being an Ambassador for the Lighthouse Foundation’s Mums ‘n Bubs homes and Ambassador for The Brave Hearts Foundation.

Stacey is an inspiration, certainly is living proof of the fact, regardless of your situation if you are powered by passion, all things are possible...
